MARK (MIKE) STOREN

General Manager

Guiding the fortunes of the Pacers is Mike Storen, a native of Michigan City, Indiana, who was selected as the team's General Manager.

Before joining the Pacers, Storen was the Promotion Director for the Baltimore Bullets and the Business and Promotion Manager of the NBA's Cincinnati Royals.

The thirty-three year old graduate of Notre Dame spent five years as an officer in the U.S. Marine Corps before going into professional sports.

Recognized as the cornerstone of the new league, Indianapolis has led the ABA in attendance under the leadership of its dynamic General Manager. Highlighting the Pacers, and the league's inaugural season was the first ABA All-Star Game, considered by many to be the finest show case of professional basketball ever staged.

Mike, his wife Hannah, and their three children reside in Capital City.

BOB LEONARD

Coach

Bob Leonard comes to the Pacers with an outstanding basketball background. Bob was a two-time All American at Indiana University.

After graduation Leonard performed for seven years in the NBA with Minneapolis, Los Angeles and Chicago. Leonard concluded his NBA career by coaching the Chicago franchise for a half year and then spending a season as head coach of the Baltimore Bullets. Besides scouting for the Pacers, Leonard has remained active in recent days as a manufacturer's representative for the Herff-Jones Company.

Leonard, his wife and four children, reside in Kokomo, Indiana.
